However, any such lots are only returnable within forty-eight (48) hours of receipt, and in the condition received.
6. ESTIMATES: These are conservative. Bidding will commence at a bidding increment over the second highest postal/absentee bid received prior to commencement of the auction. Where one or no bids have been received, bidding will commence at 70% of the lot estimate, or at reserve if above 70%.

Robert Walter Sims (1877 - 1933), born in Lambeth, London, entered the Royal Navy in May 1894, advanced to Able Seaman in Sep 1897, joined HMS Forte in Apr 1899 and subsequently deployed ashore with the Naval Brigade in Natal during the Boer War. Sims serving as a Petty Officer in the fledgling submarine service was ordered to the Dardanelles in the HMS E7 in the summer of 1915. Commanded by Lieut-Commander A D Cochrane, the E7, a small submarine with 3 officers and 28 men, had an illustrious career in which Sims had charge of the after-switchboard. After sinking 13 ships and damaging many more in the Sea of Marmara during June and July 1915, E7 attempting to re-enter the Dardanelles on her next patrol was caught in new Ottoman anti-submarine nets off Nagara Point. On the 4th September 1915, after hours attempting to work free, Cochrane ordered E7 to the surface where she was scuttled. The crew were all taken prisoner. A S Evans, "Beneath the Waves: A History of HM Submarine Losses 1904-1971" says 'For the first few days following their capture, the submariners were treated quite well. Then came a move to Constantinople and with it a rude introduction to the more unsavoury aspects of Turkish prison life. For 3 weeks they were confined to the capital's prison with five hundred criminals for company'. Following repatriation, Sims was awarded the DSM and OBE. He was given a duplicate QSA Medal on 26 May 1919. It was sent to the HMS Dolphin, the ship that he was on at that date. His duplicate QSA Medal along with Sims other seven medals sold through Dix Noonan Webb in 2012. AU $1,000

"At 7am on 12th October 1917, during the attack on the Bellevue Spur, Private Morrison, a Battalion runner in the forward party carried out his work fearlessly under the most dangerous and adverse circumstances. By his courage and determination, he struggled through a terrific barrage of machine-gun and shell fire right from the forward line to the Headquarters of the Battalion.
