Biographical notes	George Smyth was born in Theberton, Suffolk in 1822, the son of Thomas Smith and Lucy nee Woodard. Both George and his brother John (b. 1819, service no. 1549) enlisted as a Private with the 58th Regiment on 11th Dec 1842. George was then a labourer. In 1843 the regiment took over garrison duties in New South Wales, with the troops progressively travelling to Australia as guards on 19 convict ships. George departed Deptford on the Duke of Richmond on 31 August 1843, arriving at Sydney on 24 January 1844. In March 1845 a quarter of the regiment was dispatched to the Bay of Islands under Col Wynard and a remaining group went to Norfolk Islands. It appears more likely that 1550 George Smyth and 1549 John Smyth were in Norfolk Island as they are recorded as travelling from Sydney with the Norfolk contingent on the Louisa arriving 23 Dec 1845. This implies that he was not the George Smyth listed as wounded at the Battle of Puketutu who is probably 1410 George Smith who is listed in the medal roll as being wounded there. However, his absence is not totally certain as there is another Smyth also listed (see below) and 1550 George Smyth's name appears to be consistently spelt Smyth at this time in Army records. The absence of his name as wounded in the medal roll is not conclusive as some other casualties are also not recorded. Both Smyth brothers were, however, probably present at the Battle of Ruapekapeka (11 Jan 1846) as both are listed as being in the detachment at the Bay of Islands. Neither are recorded as spending any time in hospital, so it is unlikely that they were seriously wounded there. George served with the 58th Foot for 11 years and was in New Zealand for 8 of these. He was discharged in 1853 and in about 1857 he received a land grant of 40 acres in Otahuhu (as did his brother, John). In 1877 he is recorded as winning the Otahuhu Agricultural Society ploughing contest, and in 1897 he applied for an additional land grant for his service in the militia. He married Rose Ann McMullen on 24 Aug 1858, and he died at Otahuhu on 22 Sept 1910 (and is buried as George Smith)

Smith, being sworn, said:-

was in the 58th regiment. I got land for Heke's war, 40 acres. I was discharged in 1855. I claim for the militia service. I was never at the front with Nixon. It was the militia. Every man in the settlement had to take up arms. We had a parade whenever we were called upon

The deceased had had an unusually active and adventurous career and braved the dangers of battle in many lands. Born in Nells, Somersetshire, England, in December, 1835, he had almost reached the close of his eightieth year. At the age of 18 he joined the Monmouthshire Militia, later on enlisting in the 23rd Royal Welsh Fusiliers, and in 1855 proceeded with that regiment to the Crimea, where he received the intelligence that his brother had been mortally wounded at the battle of Alma. The deceased took part in the siege of Sebastopol. On the return of the regiment to England, Mr Rudduck transferred to the 99th Lanarkshires and went with that regiment to India, where the Mutiny was still unquelled. After a few years of active service in India, the regiment received orders to China, and deceased was present at the capture of Peking in 1860. With the Lanarkshires he also did duty at Malta and Gibraltar, and one of his proudest recollections was having taken part in reviews by Queen Victoria at Aldershot and Curragh-Kildare. On receiving his discharge from the Army Mr Rudduck turned his face towards the South and sailed by the ship Vanguard from Liverpool for Melbourne, where   he arrived at the end of 1861. A year later he came to New Zealand, landing at Dunedin from the s.s. Gothenburg near the close of 1862. At the time the Maori War was in full progress in the North Island Mr Rudduck promptly responded to a call for volunteers, and, on acceptance, went to Auckland in charge of a party of volunteers. He was attached to the 3rd Waikato Regiment with rank of sergeant. After seeing a good deal of service in the field Mr Rudduck roamed over a portion of both islands, and finally settled in Oamaru. He entered the service of the Waitaki County Council in February, 1880, and after 26 years faithful service, retired nine years ago with the respect and good wishes of his employers and all with whom he had been associated or brought into contact with. Mr Rudduck was married in 1865, his wedding being one of the first celebrated in the little Wesleyan Church that stood upon the hill in Wansbeck street, where the Hill Tennis Club's court is situated. He leaves a widow and a family of five—three sons and two daughters—to mourn his death, and to them sincere sympathy will be extended by a large circle of friends.

AND WESTLAND OBSERVER.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1874.

A rifle match between the First Westland Rifles and the Hutt Rifles was fired on Wednesday. The conditions were ten men aside ; ranges, 200, 400, 500, and 600 yards ; any position ; seven shots at each range. The subjoined are the scores of the Westland Rifles:—Vol. Ross, 89 ; Vol. Paterson, 83 ; Sub-Lieut. Linstrom, 77 ; Corp. Munyard, 77 ; Corp. Learmonth, 73 ; Corp. M'Levie, 71 ; Lieut. Glasgow, 70 ; Vol. Mishell, 69 ; Vol. Stonebridge, 69 ; Vol. Jones, 61. Total, 746.

DEATH OF A WELLINGTON MAN AT CHICAGO.

A large number of our readers will hear with much regret of the death at Chicago of Mr W. F. Ross, the well known fruiterer of Lambton quay, news of which was received by the family on Monday morning. The deceased and Mrs Ross left Wellington on a visit to Chicago in May last, joining their son, Mr Samuel Ross, in San Francisco, and proceeding thence on to the exhibition. Letters which reached Wellington subsequently spoke of the enjoyment they were all experiencing in the trip, but yesterday letters addressed to Mr Samuel Ross were received here from some friends in Chicago, condoling with him on the death of his father, which letters had been forwarded from San Francisco to his relations here. Mr W. F. Ross was a native of Adelaide, where his mother is still living. He was 52 years of age. In the early days of Victoria he resided at Castlemaine, where he was well known and respected, and was one of the first members of the now celebrated Volunteer corps, then under the command of Lieutenant-Colonel Bull. He there distinguished himself as a marksman. To the best of our belief, Mr George Purdey is the only other person in Wellington who was a member of the Castlemaine Rifles at the same time. Mr Ross came to this Colony in 1862, taking part in the Gabriel's Gully rush. He married Mrs Ross in 1865, in Dunedin, and then lived for a number of years at Hokitika, where he was a prominent member of the local Volunteer corps, and for some time the champion shot of the Westland province. In 1878 Mr Ross removed with his family to Wellington, where he has ever since carried on business as a fruiterer. He leaves a family of eleven children, one of whom is the wife of Mr D. D. Hyde, tobacconist, and to all the news of his unexpected death came as a fearful shock. The same letters which brought the sad news of his death, conveyed the intimation that the widow and her son, Mr S. Ross, were bringing the body of the deceased to New Zealand for interment. The late Mr Ross had a large circle of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will hear the sad tidings of his death with heartfelt regret.

VOLUNTEER FIRING MATCH.

A match was fired, yesterday, by the First Westland Rifles, against the Christchurch Artillery. The conditions were ten men aside; distances, 200, 400, and 500 yards; seven shots at each range. Positions—200 yards, standing; 400 and 500 yards, any position. The shooting of the Westland Rifles was really very good, and we believe has been rarely excelled in the Colony. The result was a victory for the local team by a majority of 131 points, the total score of the Christchurch men being 528.

The following is the detailed score of the First Westland Rifles:—

OBITUARY

Mr. W. J. F. Ross

The death of Mr. William James Frederick Ross, a well-known Wellington citizen, occurred at his residence, Oriental Bay, on Saturday. Born at Dunedin 69 years ago, the late Mr. Ross was well known in Hokitika, where his father, Mr. W. Fraser Ross, conducted a produce business. Mr. Ross, who was familiarly known as "Billy," was first associated in business with the old Anchor Line Shipping Company. He then became accountant and inspector for the National Insurance Company, a position which he held until he was appointed manager of the Royal Insurance Company with Bannatyne and Co. In sporting circles he was actively associated with the old Wellington Boxing Association and the Wellington Amateur Athletic Association. He was also an old member of the Wellington Commercial Travellers' Association. At one time he was secretary of the Wellington Rowing Club, and later captain of the club. During his connection with this club he took the first eight-oared crew to Dunedin to compete in the regatta. He was also an enthusiastic angler and a keen shot with the gun. In musical matters also Mr. Ross, who had a fine voice, was a valued member of the old Wellington Operatic Society under Mr. Tallis Trimmell, taking the title role of "The Mikado." He was also a member for many years of the choir of St. Mary of the Angels until he went to live in Oriental Bay, and he then became a foundation member of the choir of St. Gerard's Church. Mr. Ross was a lieutenant in the Fourth Contingent in the South African War, and on his return joined the Defence Department. Until his retirement about four years ago he was cashier at Trentham. His health had been failing for the past three months. Mr. Ross was unmarried, and he is survived by Mesdames D. D. Hyde, F. J. Onkes, C. G. Farr, P. N. Denton and the Misses E. and A. Ross (sisters), all of Wellington, and Messrs. J. R. Ross, Napier, Fred. Ross, Australia, and Alf. Ross, Miramar, brothers.

The interment took place at Karori yesterday morning. The pall-bearers were old comrades, Messrs. O. Aris, K. Anderson, A. Burnette, H. Keegan, R. J. Gamble and D. Strickland, members of the Ordnance staff, Trentham, under Major King.

A Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary of the Angels Church by Rev. I. O'Connor, S.M., who also officiated at the graveside.

MR. ROBERT BARWICK

OBITUARY

The death occurred at the Cook Hospital last evening of Mr. Robert Barwick, one of the original settlers in the Rakauora district and a member of the Ninth New Zealand Contingent which served in South Africa. Mr. Barwick had been in good health until two years ago, and did not fall seriously until within the last month or two. He was in his eighty-second year.

Born in Sunderland, England, he followed farming pursuits there in his youth, and married Miss Louisa Graham Rickerby in 1889. They decided to try their fortune in a younger country, and in 1891 they went to Australia, travelling in the s.s. Solingen by the Cape route.

Settled in Gisborne in 1893

After two years in New South Wales and Queensland, Mr. and Mrs. Barwick came on to New Zealand and settled in the Gisborne district, taking employment as a married couple on Waihuka station.

In 1898 they took up 500 acres of virgin bush in the Rakauora block, and in the following two years they experienced all the hardships of life in an area lacking communications and any form of communal facilities. They packed in their stores from Waihuka and until they were able to clear a portion of their holding the nearest grass on which they could hold their pack animals was at Gold Creek. Otoko.

They sold out at Rakauora early in 1900 and paid a short visit to England, but returned before the end of the year and Mr. Barwick then volunteered for service with the New Zealand forces in the South African War, holding the rank of saddler-corporal in the Ninth Contingent, N.Z. Mounted Rifles.

Saddlery Business at Ormond

On his return after the close of hostilities he opened a saddlery shop at Ormond and continued in that business until 1912, when he drew a section in the Ngatapa block, which he disposed of in 1919. He then purchased a farm at Otoko, but was badly hit in the "little slump" of 1921 and returned to Gisborne. In 1923 he opened an auction mart in Peel Street which was later taken over by his son, Mr. A. H. Barwick.

He is survived by Mrs. Barwick and three sons and three daughters, the family comprising Mrs. D. Craill, Te Karaka, Mrs. G. Mills, Ballance, Miss L. Barwick, Gisborne, Mr. A. H. Barwick, Gisborne, Mr. Gilbert Barwick, New South Wales, and Mr. Walter Barwick, Otoko. There are 15 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

The interment took place this afternoon at the Taruheru Cemetery, following a service at Cochrane's chapel.

Recipient	BWM 79243 TPR F.J. MERSON. N.Z.E.F. & Plaque, FRANK JAMES MERSON, no W on rear of plaque.
Biographical notes	Frank James Merson was born in 1875 in Greytown, Wairarapa, the son of James Francis Merson and Esther Walker. In 1900 he was working as a jockey in Greytown, but he then trained as a compositor at the Wairarapa Standard, before working in Levin and finally, by 1911 as a linotype operator with the Gisborne Times. He married Edith Ellen Bignal in 1906 but she died in 1910 leaving him with a young daughter (b.1906). His military service was hampered by being short, at only 5 ft ½ inch (below the 5ft 2 in requirement for WW1). After being rejected for service by the New Zealand forces, he paid his own way to South Africa, where on 10 Oct 1901 he enlisted at Cape Town with the Canadian Scouts (service no 39168). He also was employed as a Guide and Scout in the Field Intelligence Dept from 29 April 1902 to 16 July 1902. He was discharged in Pretoria. For this he received the Queens South Africa with the Cape Colony, Orange Free State, Transvaal, and South Africa 1901-1902 clasps. When his medal arrived it was mislabelled Mason and had to be altered to Merson. However, he finally enlisted with the 43rd reinforcements on 30 April 1918 and embarked overseas on 10 Oct 1918 despite the fact that he already had a severe cold. He was disembarked as unwell on 22 Nov 1918 and died of broncho-pneumonia at Suez on 28 Nov 1918.

Recipient	615519 PTE. W. T. A. AYLWARD 2NZEF. 1944
Biographical notes	Thomas William Augustus Aylward, known as William, was born in Dannevirke, Hawkes Bay on 17 Aug 1918 the son of Richard Pierce (Warren) Aylward and Caroline Agnes Eustege. He served for 5 years in the navy and In 1941 he was a stoker on HMS Philomel. He was awarded the Military Medal on 11 May 1944. The citation read: 'At GREEN ISLAND, on 31 January 1944, Private Aylward was one of a party in a barge giving covering fire by rifle grenade to a platoon which was making a flank attack on an enemy position on the beach. In spite of heavy machine-gun fire at close range he continued bombing with such good effect that the enemy fire was silenced. The barge was then attacked by six enemy dive-bombers, which killed the gunner and splintered the barge in several places. Without hesitation Private Aylward manned the machine gun and regardless of his own safety continued to engage the enemy aircraft until they dispersed. His devotion to duty throughout the action was a splendid example to his comrades.'. (Source: The National Archives. Recommendation for Award for Aylward, William Thomas Augustus. (Ref. WO 373/45/554). Military Medal. Another report is: 'Although the men had been landed in the flank, the attack was frustrated by six Japanese aircraft which strafed and bombed the landing craft just as Smith began to move in to land. Machine guns, one of them manned by Private W. T. A. Aylward, drove off the attacking enemy planes. Reports obtained long afterwards disclosed that seventeen Japanese were killed by mortar fire during the strafing. Fearing that enemy aircraft might return and bomb the beach, Cornwall decided to withdraw his raiders and shelter the barges along the coast of Barahun Island until the midnight rendezvous with the APDs.' (Gillespie) He was also wounded in Italy on 11 April 1945. After World War 2 Aylward continued to serve first as a Private with Jayforce, 27 Infantry Battalion, Support Company, and then as a Sergeant in Korea with the 161 Battery of the Royal NZ Artillery (R22440250). He then returned to Napier where he was a timberworker. He never married and he died at Napier, on 7 Aug 1990.
Comments	There are some conflicts in the sources about his name and dates of the actions he was involved in. The Auckland Cenotaph lists two entries, linked by service numbers. Official birth and death records make clear his year of birth was 1918 and his death 1990. His wounding in Italy was clearly 1945, not 1944.

Fine Example to Comrades

The citation in respect of the award of the Military Medal to Private Aylward is as follows: "At Green Island on January 31, 1944, Private Aylward was one of a party in a barge giving covering fire by rifle and grenade to a platoon which was making a flank attack on an enemy position on a beach. In spite of heavy machine-gun fire at close range, he continued bombing with such good effect that the enemy fire was silenced. The barge was then attacked by six enemy dive-bombers, which killed a gunner and splintered the barge in several places. Private Aylward, without hesitation, manned a machine-gun and, regardless of his own safety, continued to engage enemy aircraft until they dispersed. His devotion to duty throughout the action was a splendid example to his comrades."

Aylward was born at Dannevirke. He served for five years in the Royal New Zealand Navy. He joined the Second New Zealand Expeditionary Force and left New Zealand in 1942 for service in the Pacific. In civil life he was employed in Auckland.

Biographical notes	Graham Speedy Richardson was born 30th June 1912 in Eketahuna, Manawatu, Wanganui., the son of Charles Thomas Richardson and Margaret Pringle Richardson, of Masterton, Wellington. He attended the Eketahuna District High School. Originally rejected from the Royal NZ Airforce due to defective eyesight in July of 1940, he was reconsidered and accepted for overseas service on the 22nd of December 1941. He enlisted Royal New Zealand Air force, 86th (R.A.F.) Squadron on 22nd February 1944. Received training from the Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 6 Bombing and Gunnery School, Mountain View, Ontario (Course 1: Class 63A /B. Graduation Date: 2/04/1943.); Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 8 Air Observer School, Ancienne Lorette, Quebec; & Royal Canadian Air Force, No. 1 General Reconnaissance School, Summerside, Prince Edward Island, Quebec. At 10pm on the 18th of July 1944, during an anti-submarine operation over the North Sea, a U-Boat was spotted and engaged approximately 100 Miles west of the Lofoten Islands. Richardson's aircraft was hit by submarine flak causing an explosion on the Starboard side. Many critical components were damaged, and fire began spreading throughout the plane. While on course for the Norge coast, the Captain decided to ditch into the ocean. All members of the crew managed to escape except for Richardson, who was killed. Two other members of the crew who were badly hurt but escaped the plane drifted away and were not found. The plane broke up and sank within 30 seconds, and Richardson's body was found floating in the water by the remaining crew. Richardson was aged 32 years. He is buried at Runnymede Memorial, Panel 264, UK.

Recipient	Gerald Harcourt Weir
Biographical notes	Gerald Harcourt Weir was born in 1896, the son of Gerald Weir and Emily Netty Jessie Jones. He enlisted in WW1 on 25 Jan 1917 and was posted as a Private to the 1st Otago Bn (service no 6131). He was immediately promoted to Corpl and on 2 April 1917 was promoted to Sergt. He served in France and Germany, and then as an instructor at Sling Camp. He received the 3rd highest marks as a NCO at Tidworth and was one of three men on the course recommended for a commission. He was discharged with the rank of Corporal on 21 July 1919. He also ran in the 100 and 220 yds of the divisional champions in France, though was unplaced, and in a military sports meeting outside of Birimingham, where he was in the winning relay team (for which he received a silver trophy). During the war he became a champion rifle shot with his highest achievement being 2nd in the King's medal (NZ). He continued to be an amateur competitor after the war. He was also interested in boxing and swimming. After the war he continued to serve in the Territorials initially as a Lieutenant and then he was promoted to Captain in 1925, and Major in 1930. He returned to work as a clerk with the NZ Loan and Mercantile Co in New Plymouth and then moved to Rotorua as a civil servant. During this time he was repeatedly in the news for his athletic achievements. He competed in both running and hurdles in both the Military sports and the Taranaki provincial sports. Amongst his placing were 120 yds (Taranaki champion 1920; Taranaki Military sports, 1922) he won the 120 yds in the Taranaki championship. By 1923 he was Secretary of the Hawera Club, and by 1922 he was one of four members of the club's quarter-mile and mile relay team, which was regarded as the strongest in the country. In 1928 his job took him to New Plymouth, and a special farewell was held at which his significant contribution to the club was recognised. In New Plymouth, he ceased to be an active competitor and became prominent in the administration of the New Plymouth Amateur Athletic Club acting as starter and handicapper for many of their events. He continued with athletic clubs when he moved to Rotorua, including being judge and timekeeper for the Auckland Provincial games. As a result of this he was, in the late 1930s, nominated for managership of both the NZ Olympic and Empire games. During WW2 he reenlisted on 24 Nov 1939 with 28 Maori Bn and embarked overseas on 1 May 1940, serving in England, Greece, Crete and Egypt. He returned to NZ on 24th Dec 1942 and continued to serve with the administrative part of the army for the rest of the war and he was then engaged as Officer-in-Charge of the New Zealand War Graves Division of the Dept of Internal Affairs. For this service he was awarded the 1939-45 Star, Africa Star, Defence Medal and the 1939-45 War Medal. He was also awarded the MBE (military division) in the 1946 Kings Birthday honours. He retired from the Territorials on 13 Nov 1951. He married Lilian Bronwen Ridd in 1923 and he died in 1973.

GOOD ALL-ROUNDER

G. H. WEIR'S RECORD AN EX-HAWERA ATHLETE

(By "Physical Culturist.")

The subject of this sketch was a very small boy when first I saw him with others of his school fellows paraded out for instruction in breathing exercises what time the writer was attached to the Wanganui Education Board. I think it was in the latter part of 1906 when Mr Fairbrother, the headmaster, drew my attention to some of the boys who were not of the Hercules type, and asked what would they become. Gerald Hartcourt Weir, who was then aged about 10, supplies the answer. "Gerry," who was born at Palmerston North on 26th October, 1896, attended the Terrace End School. The first intimation that Weir had a bit of toe was when he ran a close second to Ray Bryant (the school sprint idol of the time) at one of the school picnics. From then on he was a continuous tryer at every picnic and such like that came his way. Occasionally he was victorious, but more often than not he was outclassed. He was not naturally a good sprinter, but furnishes the proof of what determination and perseverance will do, for in 1922 at the military sports at the Hawera Show Grounds won the 100 yards Taranaki championship. When training for several of the professional meetings, and the ground in good condition, it may now do no harm to say his friends several times clocked him to run the hundred in ten. He was at his best over 100 to 200 yards, the 440 being a side line only.

At an early age young Weir had the bee in his bonnet of becoming a good athlete. Following his primary and secondary schooldays at Palmerston North he used to be a regular attendee at the sports ground, watching the amateurs there. His ideal in those days was Bert Staggpole, of Palmerston North, who was looked upon as a pretty fair sprinter and a better hurdler. He also had several trips to Kelvin Grove to witness the professional gatherings there, the Mexted Bros., who were born in the district, being then in the boom.

About this time the writer removed from the locality, losing touch with the rising athlete, and only renewing acquaintance at Hawera, when, searching for information, he was advised to enquire from Gerry Weir, when at the defense department in this town. He proved to be the long lost boy from Palmerston North. Since then we have had chats of the days and men that were. It was not often that Weir was in communicative mood, but, when he was, I learned much of what happened in the interim. Luckily Weir is one of those who kept a scrap book in which he posted items of interest, including press reports of sports he took part in, and from which book I have gleaned much of which I was not conversant.

When Weir went to the war athletics for the time being faded, although he did much running while away, details of which I found in his scrapbook. He ran in the divisional championships in France, after qualifying by winning first the battalion and then his brigade championships (100 and 220). As he had to walk seven miles to the divisional championships it may be understood he was not in the best of spirits for encounters with good men.

Whilst in England during the war period he had a field day at a military sports meeting at Sutton, Coldfield, just outside Birmingham. For this meeting his training was mostly comprised of rowing on one of the lakes near the camp. This was really after the war. He was in the winning relay team that day, second in the 100, first in 220, and first in 440 yards, and for the latter race he holds his best trophy, a silver cup encased and beautifully designed. At this meeting there were two classes of events open, and those events were set aside for members of Weir's camp only. It was in these latter events that he contested. When Weir returned to New Zealand after the war he was really coming into his best. As there was at that time no amateur club in Hawera, where he was stationed on duty, he, in common with other returned athletes, ran amongst the professionals, when, as stated, he won the 120 yards championship of Taranaki in good time, pulling up. Later on, being reinstated into the amateur ranks, he won the 100 and 220 yards title. Probably when he first came back to New Zealand he could have done well against the pick of the Dominion. He recorded victories against the S.A. amateur athletes, Kinsman, Oosterlaack and Johnstone, at New Plymouth in 100 yards against a gale. True, he was on seven yards, but was the virtual scratch competitor excepting the visitors.

Later he contested events against the next visiting team, Kirksey, Krogness, and Merchants from America. At Wanganui he ran second to Kirksey in the 75, 100 and 220. He followed this up by meeting him again at New Plymouth, and was second to him again. I believe from memory, in both the 100 and 220; at any rate I know Gerry felt a warm tickling up and down the back when, after winning the 300 in good time for a circular track, Kirksey went up to him and offered his congratulations for the persistent manner in which Weir had chased him in all the events and then at last whacked him in the 300 yards race.

Other events in which as an amateur Weir did well were when at Wellington he won the 100 yards, the 220, and ran second in the 440. Running from scratch he won the open 100 yards handicap and 220 yards. At the country clubs' gala at Palmerston North he ran third in the 120 yards hurdle championship and second to W. H. (Bill) Candy of Masterton, another of the writer's pupils. At another Palmerston North meeting, Weir got second in the broad jump, second in the 220 yards handicap, and won the 440, just beating Candy, who finished second. At Stratford he won the 440. E. Scott, who was giving Weir 4 yards, was second, the latter on the day, being on 14 yards, winning easily in 51 sec. At Otaki in April, 1923, Candy and Weir finished first and second in the 100 yards championship, both

In 1922-1923 Hawera had admittedly in Scott, Hooker, Weir and Gray the strongest quarter-mile and mile relay team in the Dominion.

In the latter year at Wanganui Weir again won the 100 and 220 yards championships and finished second to Eddie Scott in the 440 (this was for the West Coast championships).

Gerry Weir bears striking evidence that the race is not always to the swift. While not giving much promise at the age of 10, by sheer will power and "stickativeness" he became fit to take his place among the champions. To the writer's knowledge, boxing, cricket and tennis were also side lines. Weir was never a slave to one fixed idea, but believed in mixing his training, being by way of an all-rounder. Rifle shooting is a serious business with him and during the last four Army (N.Z.) championships he has finished in the following places for the King's Medal: 2nd, 14th, 7th and 23rd respectively. His athletic training has been of vital importance to him in these shooting competitions because the military conditions of shooting test one's physical powers as well as one's shooting ability.

Through force of circumstances (military retrenchment) caused him to resign, he still is a force to be reckoned with on the range, being a member of the Rotorua Miniature Club these days, and on scratch too.

From the Rotorua "Morning Post" of 11th September last I gather that the members of the Rotorua Returned Soldiers' Association held a practice shoot, when the highest score ever registered on the range was made by G. H. Weir; he finished with a total of 182 out of a possible 200, the nearest competitor being 171.

Hawera Star, 5 Dec 1931

Army Athletic Official.

Captain Gerald H. Weir, the man who was behind the gun at the N.Z.E.F. athletic championships in Cairo last August, returned to the Dominion recently (says the "Sports Post"). He was impressed with the general standard of achievement at the gathering, having full regard for the circumstances. One runner who appealed particularly was the former jockey, Masters, winner of the 100yds. Masters, he considered, was an uncommonly good sprinter. And Gerry ought to know. He was a sprinter himself in pre-Great War days and for a few years afterwards. He defeated on one occasion at New Plymouth in 1923 no less a man than American Maurice Kirksey. True, Weir had a start, but for all that it was a stout effort for a man who was then getting rather past it. Gerry later did no end of good work for athletics in the Taranaki district and then in Rotorua. He accompanied the great Jack Lovelock round the North Island when the New Zealand Olympic champion was here in 1928. Gerry, incidentally, is not connected in any way with Gerald H. ("Sandy") Weir, well-known Wellington Rugby Football Club official. The initials did, however, lead to occasional confusion in the last war, in which they served. Quite often each received the other's mail, even though they were in different units and stationed in different parts of the line.

Recipient	RICHARD KEMP 98th REGIMENT FOOT
Biographical notes	Richard Kemp is listed in the Worldwide Army Index, 1841 as a Private (service no. 858). His service number suggests that he enlisted in 1838 or 1839. He did not receive an India Medal, was not in the 1851 Army Index and did not receive a pension. This suggests that either he was discharged without a pension or, more probably, that he was one of the many who died of cholera in the China campaign., The regiment was sent to China during the 1st Opium War. It took part in the brigade that advanced on Chinkiang and the final advance on Nanking. The 98th had only 13 men killed and 1 WIA in the final advance on Nanking, but 50 men died of cholera and over 200 were unfit for service. When the regiment moved to Hong Kong over 500 died or were sick largely with cholera.

HER MAJESTY'S  REG.
OF Royal Welch Fusiliers

Whereof General Sir G. S. Cockburn is Colonel.
64982 [Place and Date.] Agro 23 Oct 1865

PROCEEDINGS OF A REGIMENTAL BOARD, held this day, in conformity to the Articles of War, for the purpose of verifying and recording the Services, Conduct, Character, and cause of Discharge of No. 5134, Private John Leahan of the Regiment above-mentioned.

President. Major C. Dyce
Members. Captain E. B. Baskin Captain C. Monro

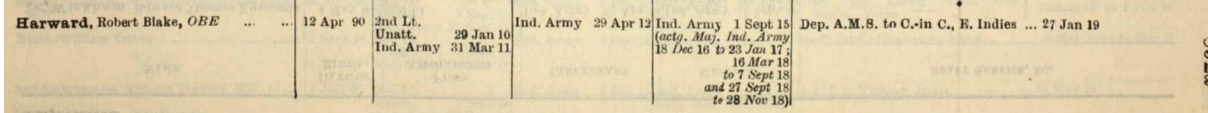

THE BOARD having examined and compared the Regimental Records, the Soldier's Book, and such other Documents as appeared to them to be necessary, report that, after making every deduction required by Her Majesty's Regulations, the Service up to this day, which he is entitled to reckon, amounts to 10 years 50 days as shown by the detailed Statement on the 2nd page; during which period he served abroad 8 1/2 years, viz.,
at East India 8 1/2 years;
in 50 7 1/2 years;
and further, that his DISCHARGE is proposed in consequence of his having attained the termination of his limited Engagement.

[Here state whether—Completion of period, at his own request, or as unfit for further Service.]

With regard to the CHARACTER and CONDUCT of Private John Leahan, the Board have to report that, upon reference to the Defaulter's Book and by the Parole testimony that has been given, it appears that he has been good, but he is in possession of two Good Conduct Badges, and the Indian Mutiny Medal with clasps for relief of Lucknow and Lucknow.

[Insert opposite—the man's Character, the number of Good Conduct Badges in his possession, and all Badges of Merit, or gallant conduct in the Field, conferred upon him.]

Medal	Queens South Africa with clasps for Cape Colony, Orange Free State, Transvaal, South Africa 1901 and South Africa 1902
Recipient	Surgeon Robert Caughey
Biographical notes	Robert Hastings Caughey was born on 29 Oct 1878 Portaferry, Co Down, Ireland, the son of Captain Robert Hastings and Margaret Caughey. He studied at the Royal University of Ireland, Belfast. He joined the Royal Army Medical Corp as a civilian surgeon. He was officially registered as a surgeon on 26 Oct 1901, so he may have begun serving after finishing his university course and before his registration, which may explain why he was a civilian surgeon. He returned to Belfast where he died in 1909.

Biographical notes	Henry Charles Bailey was born in St Leonards, Sussex in 1884, the son of Alfred and Eliza Bailey. In the 1901 census he was working as a gasfitter. He served with the Royal Engineers in France from 23 Dec 1914 to his discharge on 1 July 1919. During this time he had two other service numbers: 1521 and 534191, though the reason for this is unclear as he served as a Sapper with the Royal Engineers throughout the war. From the records it appears that his Star was impressed with 1512 while his BWM and Victory medal had 534191.

Recipient	Ronald Mason Heels
Biographical notes	Ronald Mason Heels was born in Ontario Canada on 21 March 1919, the son of Charles Earl and Jessie Heels. The family migrated back to England in 1921. In 1939 he was working as a silk designer. He enlisted with the 4th Durham Survey Regt of the Royal Artillery on 15 Nov 1939 (service no 950414) . He was captured at Tobruk on 21 June 1942 and spent time in POW camps in Italy (PG.66 and PG54), Bavaria (Stalag VIIA) and Munich (AK3732, where he was a labourer working on air raid shelters and where he reported the camp leader got many points over the Germans). (POW no 125636). He reported being weak and dizzy because of malnutrition from about Aug to Oct 1942, and that the only help he received was from the Red Cross parcels. He escaped while in Italy but was recaptured after about three months of walking by a German patrol. Only one man out of the three in the escape made it to freedom. He was discharged from service on 9 July 1946 and died in Manchester in 1985.
